

EAST-WEST STUDIES

Journal of Social Sciences of University Nord

Contemporary Problems of Freedom, Human Rights, and Identity

EWS

Number 2 (39)

April 2008

EAST-WEST STUDIES

Contents

Introduction	2
I. Quest of New Identities in Higher Education
Peeter Kreitzberg. Universities in the Changing World	3
Ene Grauberg. From Elite Higher Education to Mass Education	7
Voldemar Kolga. Knowledge and Education from Postmodern Perspective	11
Terence Kealy. The Only Democratic Universities are Private Universities	15
II. Change of Thinking and Law Making
Raivo Palmaru, K. Jaak Roosaare. The Paradox of Non-Trivial Machines	23
Mare Merimaa. The Influence of European Law in Civil Proceeding in the Republic of Estonia	34
Meelis Eerik. Are Estonian Judicial Procedures Harmonizable?	47
Justinas Peckaitis, Vidmantas Egidijus Kurapka, Hendryk Malewski, Viktoras Justickis. General Security in the Modern Society. Its Concept and Modelling	54
III. Globalisation and the Future of Nation States
Peeter Muiirsepp. The Three Dimensions of Globalization	63
Antanas Makstutis. Harmonious Development of National State under Conditions of Globalization	67
JanT. Knoph. Your Criminalisation, Our Business Opportunity- on Nation States 'Reluctance to Globalised Law	72